

Accessing Program of Study Courses

To access the courses in the program of study, choose the PROGRAMS option within the FIND LEARNING tab.

NOTE: You may need to log out and log back in for this option to appear for your account.

You will know you are taking the right courses because you will see the Arkansas History Program of Study title at the top of each course.

The screenshot shows the AETN ideas web application interface. At the top, the logo "AETN ideas" is displayed with the tagline "INTERNET DELIVERED EDUCATION FOR ARKANSAS SCHOOLS". Below the logo is a navigation bar with tabs: HOME, FIND LEARNING, RECORD OF LEARNING, REPORTS, and HELP. The "FIND LEARNING" tab is selected and highlighted with a red box. Within this tab, the "PROGRAMS" option is also highlighted with a red box. A red arrow points from the "PROGRAMS" option to the "Arkansas History Program of Study" banner. The banner features a collage of historical images and the text "Arkansas History Program of Study" in large yellow letters. Below the banner, the title "Arkansas History Program of Study Instructions (2018)" is displayed. The main content area contains a paragraph describing the program: "The Arkansas History Program of Study is a 45-hour program on the history of Arkansas. Developed through a collaboration of the Arkansas Department of Education and AETN, it is designed to be a comparable alternative to the required traditional three (3) college credit hours in Arkansas History needed for some initial teacher certifications in Arkansas. This program is used both by teachers who are acquiring reciprocity licensure from out of state and by teacher candidates here in Arkansas. It is intended for anyone seeking certification in one of the following areas:"

NOTE: If you do not see the "Programs" option within the Find Learning tab, please wait 10-15 minutes for the system to update the program of study roster and then check again. If you need assistance, please contact our help desk.
